Mile High
UNITED WAY

“My journey first started as a springboard to find more volunteering opportunities and connect with my neighbors. Through Catalyst, I have had the opportunity to nurture lasting friendships and develop a deep sense of connection to the community.”

–Charley Robinson,
Catalyst Society Chair

CATALYST SOCIETY

The Mile High United Way Catalyst Society is dedicated to helping young professionals become community champions through personal, professional and philanthropic development. Members receive access to mentorship from high-level community leaders and a variety of networking and skills-building programs. Ongoing engagement with Mile High United Way and a co-created investment strategy help Catalyst members achieve their short- and long-term personal goals.
