LEVERAGE YOUR INVESTMENT DENVER ENTERPRISE ZONE

Denver Enterprise Zone tax credits are still a great way to give!

The 2017 tax reform changed many things, but regardless if you itemize your deductions, you can still benefit from giving through the Denver Enterprise Zone tax credits. Giving through a gift of stock is also a great way to leverage these benefits, while also ensuring people in Metro Denver are connected to critical resources during their greatest time of need.

YOUR GIFT HELPS SAVE LIVES

By leveraging the DEZ tax credit, you are helping to connect over 80,000 people each year with a lifeline of resources during times of great isolation and uncertainty. Whether someone needs food, shelter, or medical care, Mile High United Way's 2-1-1 Help Center offers an empathetic ear and customized referrals that reduce barriers and provide hope.

Mile High United Way's Bridging the Gap Program also leverages the DEZ tax credit by connecting young people who are aging out of the child welfare system with housing and a pathway toward a more stable future.
